

Honestly

Tesla

I'm always here with open arms and an open door
Sometimes I find that it's myself crumblin' to the floor
Life's full of challenges that I just can't seem to ignore
Can't see around the corner, tell me what's in store

Honestly, don't ask me why I care
Cause it's a jungle out there
Honestly, I'm just a simple man
Doing the best that I can
Honestly

I always try to help everyone but me
I never seem to find the time I need to breath
I try to climb the mountain no mater how high it seems
I'm like an open book, I just let my heart bleed

Honestly, don't ask me why I care
Cause it's a jungle out there
Honestly, I'm just a simple man
Doing the best that I can
Honestly

You gotta let go cause nobody knows
The answers are so hard to find
With nothing to lose, it's easy to chose
To keep holding on, keep holding on

Honestly, don't ask me why I care
Cause it's a jungle out there
Honestly, I'm just a simple man
Doing the best that I can
Honestly
