Tesla

A wonderful lady, such a beautiful baby Gonna teach him what's wrong, and what's right Gonna show him direction, with love and affection Help make his connection in life
But now, things didn't go like she thought it would
He thinks God is the devil, and evil is good
He probably wouldn't change it, eve if he could at all

All you know is what you feel, you gotta' read between the line s
What is not, and what is real, you gotta' learn how to recogniz e
What you're holdin' in your hands, or what you see before your eyes
If you're gonna understand, you gotta' learn how to recognize

A heart is in danger, where love is a stranger
When the fear turns the anger to rage
And it's not makin' any sense, 'cause you don't know the differ ence
Wouldn't know it, if it slapped you in the face
Now, it's all mixed up, it ain't no mistake
'Cause he don't know the difference between love and hate

All you know is what you feel, you gotta' read between the line
What is not, and what is real, you gotta' learn how to recogniz

Why should I understand, when I could not comprehend, what'd yo u say Just shove it in my face, but if, I cannot relate, how will I u nderstand

But now, things didn't go like she thought it would
He thinks God is the devil, and evil is good
He probably wouldn't change it, even if he could at all
