

Perfection

Tesseract

Give me just one moment
Through the eyes of the one in
A picture perfect moment
In the life of the one who is Something better, more than Anything i will ever be
Give me just one second
Just to touch what I'll never own
Let me count those feelings
Of love that i will never share
Show me your compassion
In the dark of this world
I would give it all
For one taste of it
Of everything
I would give it all
To become you
Well i finally found out
That this world
This whole worlds a lie
And i'll try
I would give it all to become you
