

For Your Love

Tevin Campbell

For all the times I made you cry
For the cold and lonely sleepless nights
I sing a song of love to keep you near
'Cause I wanna come back to you
And there's nothing for you that I would not do

You're the other half of me
Without your love I could not breathe
So say you'll never leave again
'Cause I told you lies and I criticized you
But this time there'll be no goodbyes

For your love I would do 'most anything
For your love, the sweetest melody I'd sing
For your love, just to heal the broken wings of our love
Is for your love

So many tears I made you cry
By holding on to my foolish pride, tell me why?
'Cause now I regret it, oh yes I do
With so many days I ran away
When I'm sorry was all I had to say
I took you for granted but it's not how I planned it, oh no

For your love I would do 'most anything
For your love, the sweetest melody I'd sing
For your love, just to heal the broken wings of our love
Is for your love

So many nights I tossed and turned
Remembering all the bridges I burned
Two bridges between us, if only God could've seen us
Oh, tell me it's not too late to start again
Maybe this time as the best of friends
Just never say never, you believe in forever

For your love I would do 'most anything
For your love, the sweetest melody I'd sing
For your love, just to heal the broken wings of our love
Is for your love

For your love I would do 'most anything
For your love, the sweetest melody I'd sing
For your love, just to heal the broken wings of our love
Is for your love

For all the times I made you cry
For the cold and lonely sleepless nights
