

I've Been Missing You

Texas

Do I know if you are sleeping
Cause you lie so still and warm
Yeah the darkness and the silence wrap around me
Don't hear your cries that make me sleep so sound

Maybe I've been missing you
Oh maybe I've been missing you
For so long

If one day you said you were happy
I think your spell would be broken for good
Sometimes I pray
If you are unkind to me
Maybe I'll love you more for that

And maybe I've been missing you
Oh maybe I've been missing you
For so long

And maybe I've been missing you
I've been missing you
For so long yeh yeh
