I never thought there would be a time When all you'd wanna do is fight It's made me suffer lonely days And I'm waitin for the evenings sun To come along and calm me down Can't you see that on my face Without me you would be nowhere All alone I've cared You owe it all to me Without me you would be nowhere All alone I've cared You owe it all to me I know, it seems to you sometimes When we're alone I tend to hide Leave my feelings locked behind a door As I watch the wind cut through the trees I never wanted you to leave I only wish I'd told you this before Without me you would be nowhere All alone I've cared You owe it all to me Without me you would be nowhere All alone I've cared You owe it all to me What kinda life am I to lead With this love you've given me I thought you were a friend of mine But everyday you're someone new And that's the one I've got to lose Why do you make it so hard to fight Without me you would be nowhere All alone I've cared You owe it all to me Without me you would be nowhere All alone I've cared You owe it all to me
