

Ever since the first time I laid eyes on you
I saw the truth
No questions, just proof
And they talk, but I ain't hear a thing they said about you
Ever since the first time we laid up
Everybody want details, but don't say nothin'
I won't say nothin'
If you don't say nothin'
Cause this is between us
Yeah, we gon' fight
But I'mma love you till it's alright
Ain't gon' find these answers outside

Boy, we don't need nobody's advice
Give me your shoulder to cry on
And I'll be alright
I'll be the one you rely on
This love

Ain't none of your friends business
Ain't none of my friends business
It's ours, all ours, nobody else's
None of your friends business
Ain't none of my friends business
Ain't none of your friends business
Ain't none of my friends business
Boy, it's ours, baby, it's ours

Don't ask me "How was the sex?"
That's between me, my man and our bed
Plus I know how you hoes get
I ain't tryna lose a friend telling you how my man do it the best
And the same goes for you, baby, I know how niggas do
Your friends be talking crazy, acting like bitches, too
You know they do

None of your friends business
Ain't none of my friends business
Ain't none of your friends business
Ain't none of my friends business
Boy, it's ours, baby, it's ours

So we don't need nobody else
All we need is us
Opinions get involved babe
Fucks up all the trust
The bond, the love
You're scared, me too
He hurt me, she hurt you
You're taking a risk. Well, me, too
