Losing you, I never thought that I will get so lost
Now the house it's not home anymore
But I was fly enough to walk away
And now I'm crying about you every day
This is a price that I don't want to pay

So I'm running back to her
So I'm running back
I'm running back
Cause I need your love
I'm running back
I'm running back
I want you back
Cause I need your love

Girl I know your said you giving up
You say come in and had enough
You almost fall out of love
Girl I know I'm no good
But I'm lost without you by my side
Where do I go from here, I know you said you've done
But I refuse to let you go

So I'm running back
I'm running back
I'm running back
I want you back
I'm running back to you
I'm running back to you
I'm running back
Cause I need your love

Maybe I cry for you tonight ooh, yeah
No excuse to everything I did
I can't lie with everything I did baby
I messed it up with you, now all that I can do
It's pay forgiveness baby
I'm running after you, baby I need you more

Baby I need you more
Baby I need you more
Baby I need you more
I'm going insane

I said I'm running back to you, to you
I said I'm running back to you, to you
I'll be running back to you
I'll be running back to you
I'll be running back to you
I need your love

So I'm running back
I'm running back
I'm running back

I want you back
I'm running back to you
I'm running back to you
I'm running back
Cause I need your love
