

Punk Rock Girl

that dog.

She knows where she's coming from Nice little punk rock girl
She's so lonely and lovely and mad at her mom
She's the best little girl in the world
She walks in, we all applaud
A candle can't be held by Shena
With her gold dress and black roots and tattoo of God
She's the next best thing to Athena
Punk rock girl will rock your world
Punk rock girl will rock your world
Your world
Punk rock girl will rock your world
Your world
