

Heart Of The Lion

Thaurorod

All of ray life I have gazed at the sea
Watching descent of the sun over me
I quelled all my doubts and started to go
Journey I took was not easy to roam

And as I followed my heart...
It came to be it ripped my dreams apart

Heart of the lion - the fire in the darkness
Hail to the ones who defy raging sea
Heart of the lion - Tailwind blowing stronger
Sail by the course of your heart...

In the black of the night where you can find no light
Surrounded by treacherous waters and sights

As I was sailing on...
Finally twilight of rising sun

Heart of the lion - The fire in the darkness
Hail to the ones who defy raging sea
Heart of the lion - Tailwind blowing stronger
Sail by the course of your heart to the dawn

Fire burning inside
Fire keeps me alive

Heart of the lion - the fire in the darkness
Hail to the ones who defy raging sea
Heart of the lion - Tailwind blowing stronger
Sail by the course of your heart to the dawn
