

Shadows and Rain

Thaurorod

So we have come to the edge of forever
When we have lost all the things we had together

Now shades and shadows are fading away
I can feel I'm healing

Now, now I can see
How things were meant to be
and where we went wrong .
Faith, I still have my faith
To turn away sorrow and pain
Shadows and rain

Far, far away, I have sailed on distant oceans
But still in my heart there is you for my emotion

Now shades and shadows are fading away
I can feel I'm healing

Now, now I can see
How things were meant to be
and where we went wrong
Faith, I still have my faith
To turn away sorrow and pain
Shadows and rain

Far far away...
There is you for my emotions..

Now, now I can see
How things were meant to be
and where we went wrong
Faith, I still have my faith
To turn away sorrow and pain
Shadows and rain
