

Straight lines they unwind you
She does a little thing with her eye that says, "We're off soon

She said the bleeding's incidental 'cause she's so cool
She said I'm no fun if I've only a bottle of wine

And now she's doing it all the time
Yeah, she's doing it all the time

Slow down
Yeah, I want you
She does a little bit on the sky
That shows what she's up to
She started talking about missing him she was glistening
It won't mend your heart if it's only a couple of lines

But now she's doing it all the time
Yeah, she's doing it all the time
Yeah, she's doing it all the time
Yeah, she's doing it all the time
Yeah, she's doing it all the time
