

Death Hymn

The 3rd and the Mortal

Dreams carry me into sleep
As I sigh
I write your name in my Soul
As I search your words
I cast my destiny on to you

Deadly whisper in my ear
Finally me now, my time has come

I never thought I would feel this way
I never thought I would go this far
I never thought I would surrender
I never thought I would give in to you
So give me a sign before I die
Show me you've heard my prayer
Veil of mist, hazy the view
The entrance to Death
Appears

'Step back
Feel your mighty darkness prepare your soul
for the journey through woods of evil
Waning in the end to the paths of hopelessness and your life will end'

Leave your present time
Leave your flesh
Leave your life
