Death Hymn

Dreams carry me into sleep

The 3rd and the Mortal

As I sigh I write your name in my Soul As I search your words I cast my destiny on to you Deadly whisper in my ear Finally me now, my time has come I never thought I would feel this way I never thought I would go this far I never thought I would surrender I never thought I would give in to you So give me a sign before I die Show me you've heard my prayer Veil of mist, hazy the view The entrance to Death Appears 'Step back Feel your mighty darkness prepare your soul for the journey through woods of evil Waning in the end to the paths of hopelessness and your life will end' Leave your present time Leave your flesh

Leave your life
