

Dead Girls Are Easy

The 69 Eyes

She'll be the bride
Of the darkness open wide
She'll feel the bite
Of the night before the bright

And it feels alright
When the shadow comes alive
Feeding on the night
She's gone to the other side

Dead dead
So dearly departed
Dead dead
So lost and broken hearted

Dead dead
Dead girls are easy
Dead dead
Dead girls are easy
Dead
All they wanted to do is rock

When the moon is high
Still air and the candles die
Here comes the bride
Raven hair skin milky white
She's hot as ice
You can't keep her off your eyes
Don't you even try
She's gone to the other side

Dead dead
So dearly departed
Dead dead
So goddamn broken hearted
Dead dead
Dead girls are easy
Dead dead
Dead girls are easy
Dead
All they ever wanted to do is rock.
