

Lay Down Your Arms, Girl

The 69 Eyes

I'm crawlin' back to you like a rattlesnake I've got poison run nin'
thru burnin' down alive without you my dear things I've left behind make me want to disappear surrender now lay down your arms girl can't you see for you I've been kicked around the world fallin' back on you don't you believe everything I've said is true burnin' down alive without you my dear things I've left behind make me want to disappear no use tryin' to get your sorrows dro wned
don't you know they just learn to swim
