

Red

The 69 Eyes

Hopefully you'll get what you wanted
And hopefully you'll get what you need
The taste of blood is always lonely
Cuts you like a heart of steel
And Hopefully you'll get you wanted
And hopefully you'll get what you need

When something is broken
Left wide open
Don't say you need me it's too late
I cannot say
When something is broken

Hopefully you'll get what you wanted
And hopefully you'll get what you need
Red is like you always told me
The colour of what is real

When something is broken
Don't say you need me it's too late
I cannot say
When something is broken (broken)
Don't say you need me it's too late
I cannot say
When something is broken

Something is broken
Something is broken

When something is broken (broken)
Left wide open (left wide open)
Don't say you need me it's too late
I cannot say

When something is broken (broken)
When something is broken (broken)
Don't say you need me it's too late
I cannot say
When something is broken
