

Stolen Season

The 69 Eyes

But your tears
Are not mine
Still sailing down on them 'til the end of time
All your fears
Still bleeding
Out of your heart down on the sea
But you are
What you believe in
Come rain or shine in your garden of weeping
Still you keep on Seeking
The celebration of the evening

But your tears are not mine
I don't care if I die
As long as I can have you by my side

But your tears
Are not mine
Still sailing down on them 'til the end of time
All your fears
Still bleeding
Out of your heart down on the sea
But we are
What we believe in
Come rain or shine in your garden of weeping
But we keep on
Seeking
The celebration of the evening

But your tears are not mine
I don't care if I die
As long as I can have you by my side
All forgotten has gone
To sing this lonely song
Things just happen without no reason
Love's a stolen season
