

Enemy Unbound

The Absence

This is the wreck from our hell bound
Depths, the damning blast of fear
A cataclysmic sea overflowing
With serpents and beasts
Oh the horrors that rain down
From perdition's mouth
Echo wages made, spineless displays
Weak and wicked in every way

I hear the wretched song
Infesting every single mind
Through the flash of fame

Watch the unfit rise, watch them writhe

This is the rise, this is the fall
Of the cancer within
The defeated cast down
Enemy, the enemy unbound

This is our time, a harvest of power
The sew and reap, the collapse of pride
Where their ruin resides, all dignity denied

I hear the wretched song
Infesting every single mind
Through the flash of fame

The corrupted fault, watch them fall

This is the rise, this is the fall
Of the cancer within
The defeated cast down
Enemy unbound

This is the rise, this is the fall
Of the cancer within
The defeated cast them down
The enemy unbound

Watch them rise, watch them fall

This is the rise, this is the fall
Of the cancer within
The defeated cast down
Enemy unbound

This is the rise, this is the fall
Of the cancer within
The defeated cast down
Enemy, the enemy unbound
