

Baby Buster

The Acacia Strain

I don't sing fucking love songs because there's nothing in this world for me to love.
I want the world to have my rape baby so when it's born I can strangle it to death.
This is not a healthy relationship.
When the bomb drops you will spend the last few minutes of your life shitting your pants.
Remember how i always told you "I hold your life in my hands"?
You stare and pray as you watch them fall.
I will make complete fools of you all.
I stopped telling her I loved her a long time ago.
If you know what's good for you, you won't tell anyone.
This is domestic abuse like you've never seen.
This is a Lifetime movie on a global scale.
"Just tell them you fell down the stairs"
So now it's come to this.
Take control!
It is my job as a human being to let my ignorance take control.
It is my job as a human being to run this bitch in the ground.
Your mother earth is a dirty slut.
When the bombs drop...
