The Acacia Strain

Revert. Revert into the sullen dogs you once were. As poison re places blood, revert and demolish. Everyone used to think human ity was you, slowly and surely you're more machine than men. Ge ars and cogs clog your system. Overload. Always running in circ les. Tie me up, light me up, tear me down. As the paint runs do wn your face and into your eyes, think of me. I want to be reme mbered as pain.
