

Terminated

The Acacia Strain

I propose a toast to the 21st century, I can't close my eyes at night

I propose a toast to the 21st century, I can't close my eyes at night

Awareness is inevitable, destruction is not preventable

Awareness is inevitable, destruction is not preventable

Bastardization of human life, modernization of efficient life

Cutting the corners, cut the cord

There are no mourners, they cannot mourn

Bloodthirsty, unfeeling, outgunned, outmanned

Situation has far exceeded critical

Out fate was sealed when they flipped the fucking switch

We are all beyond the point of no return

The foreground and background have merged

We are all beyond the point of no return

The foreground and background have merged
