I took a step back as the room was filling up I was packed against some people who were tossing up a strong vibe Now the door's locked And the shower's on And I realize I don't recognize anyone But I don't mind Well the neighbors have complained damn near every night The neighbors have complained damn near every night You shoulda shown up Shoulda shown up by now You should shown up by now With a knock at the door The knock at the door as it goes Whoa... Well now everybody's losing control! Intoxicated circulation Just try and sit back, get my palette wet Getting mentally prepared for the consequences And you know why Because that knock at the door Calls the crowd to quiet The neighbors have complained damn near every night You shoulda shown up Shoulda shown up by now You shoulda shown up by now Give it a rest, give it a rest, give it a rest You shoulda shown up Shoulda shown up by now You shoulda shown up by now With a knock at the door The knock at the door as it goes Whoa... whoa... whoa... There's no one left lying on the second story floorboards And I'm sure they heard next door But the bottles are hollow now And there's room at the bottom And I would take it back If I could, but I won't! Sit back, get my palette wet Getting mentally prepared for the consequences And you know why Because the neighbors have complained damn near every night The neighbors have complained damn near every night

You should shown up
Should shown up by now
You should shown up by now
Give it a rest, give it a rest, give it a rest
You should shown up by now
With a knock at the door

The knock at the door as it goes Whoa... whoa... whoa...
