

Could, Not Should

The Action Design

Ready or not, it's winter again
That wonderful time when
We go inside our heads
Reflect and deny
It's been a battle year after year
Planning on winning by a landslide
If I can control the fire in my eyes

This new year my resolution will hold
I'm gonna take my sledgehammer
I'm gonna break the mold
This new year my resolution will hold
I'm gonna take my sledgehammer
I'm gonna break the mold

Even with all my stitches
The incision is too deep
Too deep to heal
That's why I'll write this down
So everybody knows it
And I can't ignore the way I feel

This new year my resolution will hold
I'm gonna take my sledgehammer
I'm gonna break the mold
This new year my resolution will hold
I'm gonna take my sledgehammer
I'm gonna break the mold
This new year my resolution will hold
I'm gonna take my sledgehammer
I'm gonna break the mold
