

Move On

The Action Design

He's afraid of what lies ahead for him,
Venturing into the unknown.
No one around him can truly sympathize,
On this journey, he goes alone.

But I know it's not your time...
No, it's not your time
And I know that... it's not your time
And we will help you get up
And get back on your feet again.
You've got to move on.

He's afraid his life will always be like this,
but I know in my heart he's wrong.
Somehow he will be repaid for all of this
All this time and energy gone.

But I know it's not your time...
No, it's not your time
And I know that... it's not your time
And we will help you get up
get back on your feet again.

You've got to get up
get back on your feet again
you've got to get up
get back on your feet again
You've got to move on...
