

All the Lucky People

The Adicts

Goodness gracious Mrs. Smith's a very lucky lady paints her toe nails rainbow colours & her hair is green She won the lottery & shared her fortune with a sailor They're so happy on their little island made of dreams

god all mighty Mr. Brown his money drives him crazy he's got so much he doesn't have a care he sits alone on his throne his castle is so empty he used to work in factory, in the square, he was happy there.

bloody hell sweet little daisy's got all daddy's cash she blew it on all bubblics & yellow puppy dogs she lost the mansion, lost the roller, lost the chauffeur too she took off with her jewelry & trimmed her curly locks she trimmed her curly locks,

living in their dreams
all the lucky people
i wonder where they've been
im one of the lucky people
