

Grow

The Advent

I wanna breathe
I wanna bleed
I wanna, let you know

I be wanna be there
I wanna see
I wanna, let you grow

Need to feel used,
I am so confused
Need to break through,
What's only meant for few

Can't feel unreal
Can't look them in the eye
Can't run can't hide
From the lies inside

All I have
It pulls away at
All I gave
It is because

I wanna breathe
I wanna bleed
I wanna, let you know

I be wanna be there
I wanna see
I wanna, let you grow

Although things may not ever change
The feelings never rearrange
Be you, be free
You're everything to me

Need to abuse
I seem to always lose
Need to shut down
What's lost and can't be found

Can't be a lie
I cannot be caught
Can't be alive
Knowing how hard I fought

All I have
It pulls away at
All I gave
It is because

I wanna breathe
I wanna bleed
I wanna, let you know

I be wanna be there
I wanna see

I wanna, let you grow

Although things may not ever change
The feelings never rearrange
Be you, be free

Where is my mind?
It's left behind
Why am I blind?
Inside can't find
Where is the time?
(I seem to know)
Now is the time

Because
I wanna breathe
I wanna bleed

I be wanna be there
I wanna see
I wanna, let you grow

Although things may not ever change
The feelings never rearrange
Be you, be free
You're everything to me
Be you, be free
You're everything to me
Be you, be free
