

In My Eyes

The Afters

You're walking, but no one seems to notice.
Like a picture out of focus, but it looks clear to me.
You're talking, feeling like no ones listening.
You think you're not interesting, but I just don't agree.

You're the color showing through a world of black and white.
I will always stand by you, cause I am on your side.

In my eyes, you're more than complete.
You're perfect to me,
If you could only see the way that you shine.
In my eyes, if there's one thing that's true,
It's that I believe in you.
You make the world look so bright
And put a smile in my eyes.
In my eyes
In my eyes (put a smile in my eyes)
In my eyes

Do you see the sky is smiling?
There's no need for hiding.
You're all I want to see.
I could spend a lifetime trying
To find the words describing
What you are to me.

You're the color showing through
A world of black and white.
I will always stand by you,
Cause I am on your side.

In my eyes, you're more than complete.
You're perfect to me,
If you could only see the way that you shine.
In my eyes, if there's one thing that's true,
It's that I believe in you.
You make the world look so bright
And put a smile in my eyes.
In my eyes
In my eyes (put a smile in my eyes)
In my eyes

When all you see are the scars, all I see is your heart.
You're beautiful. You're beautiful the way that you are.

In my eyes, you're more than complete.
You're perfect to me,
If you could only see the way that you shine.
In my eyes, if there's one thing that's true,
It's that I believe in you.
You make the world look so bright
And put a smile in my eyes.
In my eyes
In my eyes (put a smile in my eyes)
In my eyes
