

Love Isn't Love

The Aggrolites

Love isn't Love until you give it away And what you give is what you get, so find someone today

Lost time will never, never be found Bu now I know what love is because you're around What's learned from the crib, will last to the grave. I learned that one man's loss is another man's gain. When I found you, oh yes it's true. You're the one that I adore There's only a remedy for love, that's only to love you more.

Love isn't Love until you give it away And what you give is what you get, so find someone today.

Decisions made by night, may be changed by the day. But my mind 's made up because I gave my love away. The say the time may change things, but the change depends on you. I'll keep you love forever, we'll know just what to do. Because everything must have a begining, and you started my romance. And when the music changed in my life, so did the dance. I love you so...

Love isn't Love until you give it away And what you give is what you get, so find someone today
