

Someday

The Aggrolites

Giddy off, giddy off Off of that high horse, yeah When things got rough I didn't give you a chance When things got tough I didn't even understand

Now I know you ain't a fool And you still gonna keep it cool Cause now you own the world with what you've got Oh I told you that someday That the struggle would go away Thought you'd still be here, but now you're not

That's why it's ringing in my ears when I tell you Someday, someday things won't be the same

I remember you telling me, That this ain't where you wanna be And that gold inside your heart ain't paper green But I know what my heart needs And I won't fill it up with greed We both wanted different things So we agree to disagree

And now sing Someday, someday things won't be the same It's ringing in my ears now yeah Someday, someday things won't be the same

Giddy off giddy off Off of that high horse yeah Oh when things got tough, I didn't give you that chance, oh I didn't now

I said giddy off giddy off Off of that high horse yeah Oh when things got rough, I didn't even understand

Cause I won't, step on your feet Cause I know you always knew it And I just want to let you know, I can relate to why you do it And just remember, times have changes, Though, they will never be the same I'm still gonna be around for you Cause there ain't nothing we can do

And one time, Someday, someday things won't be the same Oh and It's ringing in my ears now, now Someday, someday things won't be the same
