

Take a Bow

The Agonist

Powerless, depressed
I try to conceal all the wreckage inside
They are denied the basic rights
Gand delivered to all mankind

My patience tried
Forgiveness died
My arms are tied, let go
All of the scars, built up the walls
Life drifting far below
Instinct can't save you now
Man stand up, take a bow
The sun always hides behind the clouds
Always

Tell me - When did we lose our way
Why is the whole world our prey
Inhumane is the trend nowadays
How much more can they pay
In the end

My patience tried
Forgiveness died
My arms are tied, let go
All of the scars, built up the walls
Life drifting far below
Instinct can't save you now
Man stand up, take a bow
The sun always hides behind the clouds
Always

How blind we've been to let destructive forces fly
Deaf ears hear them, closed hands feel them
Empathy begins when all this ends
Here it ends

End all innocent lives right now
We bring nothing and claim the crown
End all innocent lives right now
We bring nothing and claim the crown
