Powerless, depressed
I try to conceal all the wreckage inside
They are denied the basic rights
Gand delivered to all mankind

My patience tried
Forgiveness died
My arms are tied, let go
All of the scars, built up the walls
Life drifting far below
Instinct can't save you now
Man stand up, take a bow
The sun always hides behind the clouds
Always

Tell me - When did we lose our way Why is the whole world our prey Inhumane is the trend nowadays How much more can they pay In the end

My patience tried
Forgiveness died
My arms are tied, let go
All of the scars, built up the walls
Instinct can't save you now
Man stand up, take a bow
The sun always hides behind the clouds
Always

How blind we've been to let destructive forces fly Deaf ears hear them, closed hands feel them Empathy begins when all this ends Here it ends

End all innocent lives right now
We bring nothing and claim the crown
End all innocent lives right now
We bring nothing and claim the crown
