Sooner Or Later

The Alan Parsons Project

Oh what a price we pay For the things we say And the closer I get to you The further you move away

All the lies we tell In the games we play And the longer I think it over The harder it is to stay

Sooner or later I'll be free To leave the past behind Sooner or later you're gonna be The last thing on my mind Little by little I'm finding out The truth behind your eyes Maybe if I don't show I thought you might like to know You're gonna be the last thing on my mind

You didn't want to know I could have told you so But the moment I think it's over The further there is to go Just a little word Such an easy way But the longer I think about it The harder it is to say

Sooner or later I'll be free To leave the past behind Sooner or later you're gonna be The last thing on my mind Little by little I'm finding out The truth behind your eyes Maybe if I don't show I thought you might like to know You're gonna be the last thing on my mind
