

Speaking my mind, single trail of thought
Difference in the way we perceive your ability to receive
I know you listen, faults lie between us
You hear my speaking, something change my words

Hordes of inconsistencies and fiction
Swarm the paths of your thoughts
Your interpretation of my actions, convenient to your cause
I'll say again another way

Splintered slithers of truth
Rumored tales, my proof
Tolerance prevents and outcome

Hordes of inconsistencies and fiction
Swarm the paths of your thoughts
Your interpretation of my actions, convenient to your cause
I'll say again another way

Words a mouldable form of matter
Interpretation, your point is shattered
Lies a manifestation of truth
Changes arise because of a difference

Words a mouldable form of matter
Interpretation, your point is shattered
Lies a manifestation of truth
Don't accuse me because of a difference

I know you hear my words
Somewhere faults that lie between us

Speaking my mind, single trail of thought
I know you're listening
But some faults lie between us
I know you hear my words

Hordes of inconsistencies and fiction
Swarm the paths of your thoughts
Your interpretation of my actions, convenient to your cause
I'll say again another way
