Went to bed with a smile.

Bragged to my friends

for a little while.

And I wished for another date,

to sit with you dazin'.

I was in this state

of tossing and turning not knowing what to do.

Just sitting and waiting for a call from you.

I know that it's real and it's no surprise.

To see that its true I look into your eyes.

Yes, she changed me.

And now I'm not the same.

And I know just how I have a world when she says my name.

Now I see you every day.

I go out of my way just to see your face and school with you isn't the same.

Sleepless nights and our jokes are lame.

I am hoping and dreaming of another night like this.

Restless, and yearning for your sweet kiss.

I know that it's real. It's no surprise.

To see that it's true I look into your eyes.

Oh Yes, she change me,
Now I'm not the same.
I know now just how I have a world when she says my name.
She changed me and now im not the same.
And I know now just how I have a world
when she says my name.

Tossing and turning not knowing what to do.

Just sitting and waiting for a call from you.

I know that its real and its no surprise.

To see that its true I look into your eyes.

Yes, she changed me. A

And now I'm not the same.

And I know just how I have a world when she says my name.

Tossing and turning not knowing what to do.

Just sitting and waiting for a call from you.

I know that its real and its no surprise.

To see that its true I look into your eyes.

Oh Yes, she changed me.

And, now I'm not the same.

And I know just how I have a world when she says my name.
