

Barfly

The Almighty

Streetfight, goodnight, turned out alright
Everybody's waiting for the last bus home
Gatecrash, what a bash, fucked up, no cash
Everybody's waking up, heads exploding
It's coming round again
Gonna get my coat after one more last one
The bell is ringing time
Do it all again yeah, tomorrow night
I said...
Hey, you, me
Living like a barfly
Hey, you, me
Living like a barfly
Discotheque, get wrecked. black eye, hen-pecked
Everybody wishes they were on their own
True romance, last chance, wake up, no pants
Everybody's beautiful with beer goggles on
It's coming round again
Gonna get my coat after one more last one
The bell is ringing time
Do it all again yeah, tomorrow night
I said...
Hey, you, me
Living like a barfly
Hey, you, me
Living like a barfly
It's coming round again
Gonna get my coat after one more last one
The bell is ringing time
Do it all again yeah, tomorrow night
I said...
Hey, you, me
Living like a barfly
Hey, you, me
Living like a barfly
Hey, you, me
Living like a barfly
Hey, you, me
Living like a barfly
Hey, you, me
Living like a barfly does
