

Broken Machine

The Almighty

I can't think a million years wide
But I'll try, I'll try to outnumber
No is not a word that comes easy to me
But I'm dying to give in
Blow out your mind when the music's over
Blow out the lights when you think it's over
Turn on the breath when you're needing something
You've got a broken machine
Fix it up, burn it clean
Wash the dirt from your hands
Get out the hole you're digging
You've got a broken machine
Fix it up, burn it clean
Wash the dirt from your hands
Get out the hole you're digging
I don't wanna buy opinions
They're free, but selling seems easy
No is not a word that comes freely to me
But I'm dying to give in
Blow out the lights when you think it's over
Turn on the breath when you're needing something
You've got a broken machine
Fix it up, burn it clean
Wash the dirt from your hands
Get out the hole you're digging
You've got a broken machine
Fix it up, burn it clean
Wash the dirt from your hands
Get out the hole you're digging
You've got a broken machine
Fix it up, burn it clean
Wash the dirt from your hands
Get out the hole you're digging
You've got a broken machine
Fix it up, burn it clean
Wash the dirt from your hands
Get out the hole you're digging
You've got a broken machine
Get out the hole you're digging
You've got a broken machine
Get out the hole you're digging
You've got a broken machine
Get out the hole
