

Jonestown Mind

The Almighty

Warwick/Friesen

You're the Jesus that didn't get nailed everyone loves a righteous cause

I got everything that I need to be free
I got masturbation and cable tv (chorus)

I know, I know

I know you got a Jonestown mind
I couldn't change it if I tried

Another day in the life of a dead man

I hope you're happy now you got no hope, but you got enough rope just to keep on hanging around

(chorus)

Trained to drain

why you can't explain you're everything that you don't want to be you're just chocking on your coca-cola chocking on your dreams

I know, I know

I know you got a Jonestown mind

(chorus)
