

Meathook

The Almighty

lyrics : Warwick - music : Warwick/Friesen

So come on join the resurrection

Does my conscience bother you

Screwing the world without protection

It's the corporate thing to do

You'd better start believin'

That it's just another dream

Killin' in the name of love

They put you down for freakin' freely

Coz they need someone to blame

So cut the crap and see more clearly

A world of difference is just the same

You gotta give it

You've gotta give it 'til it hurts

They're trippin' on your destiny

(chorus)

Don't fight it

Feel it

Do what you will

I' got a nerve and you're on it

Yeah what I want is what I lack

I hung my hang-ups on a meathook

That I've got buried in your back

(chorus)
