

Some Kind of Anything

The Almighty

[Chorus]

Some kind of anything

Some kind of anything

Some kind of anything

Some kind of anything

Give me a gun, hey I want to be someone

Too tired to move

I never get the dreams I choose

[Pre chorus]

I don't want to understand anymore

I don't want to understand anymore

[Chorus]

What are you afraid of

Something new might be better

No matter what I say or do

You turn me into what you want to

I've got no reason to hate you

But I hate you for no reason

The world that we wanted

Just wasn't worth the waiting
