

Stop

The Almighty

Going up to come down again
Hang up's here so just call friends
I'm feeling easy but I wanna go home
Took a walk in the pouring rain
A down pour floods my life again
But I've never ever seen the eye of this storm
Here's sitting home alone
Sitting, thinking, waiting by the phone
I don't think I think at all
There's too much time I can't recall
Stop, stopping the crash, heads in a mash
Got myself going crazy
Stop and let me off, just get me off
Just stop and let me outta here
Turning off to turn on again
Strung out daze, was I strung out then
I'm feeling easy why don't you leave me alone
Everybody wants a piece to eat
A slice of life to taste elite
I'll see you later starving at the door
Here's sitting home alone
Sitting, thinking, waiting by the phone
I don't think I think at all
There's too much time I can't recall
Stop, stopping the crash, heads in a mash
Got myself going crazy
Stop and let me off, just get me off
Just stop and let me outta here
Stop, stopping the crash, heads in a mash
Got myself going crazy
Stop and let me off, just get me off
Just stop and let me outta here
Stop!
