

Welcome to Defiance

The Almighty

Warwick/Friesen

Sometimes I feel like I'm almost damaged sometimes I get so hungry for tension All wound up and nowhere to go
I just murdered another day (chorus)

You got to go with what you know find the time to re-arrange but you love to suffer in silence when you know that you're welcome to defiance
get up, get out and try it Sometimes I get so sick of it all Sometimes I feel like I've been branded wait a lifetime to get what you wanted a stonewashed soul and a double standard (chorus)

Everything is crystal clear A million failures a million tries a million reasons to justify I only wanted out of frustration
I guess sometimes we all get taken (chorus)
