

Wrench

The Almighty

Warwick

I found it hard to believe got all caught up being freed Everything that I had you wrenched it out of my hands (chorus)

Yeah, you got me wrong you never even tried to change your way of thinking now you better decide whose side are you on ?
When the tension breaks and lying's as natural as breathing I'm going to invite you right down to rise to the occasion

Why don't you say what you mean ?
Why don't you show what you feel Tainted by your own self doubt say you hate to leave, well let me help you out (chorus)
