Dirty and Left Out

The Almost

Hello, I swear I won't be too long Hello, I promise I'll be real strong Wait up, I just wanna tell you Hold up, why are you still here?

I've been dirtier than you wanna know I've left earlier than you'll ever know

Why do, you wanna be all listenin' to me Why do, you spread your arms and tell me I'm free Why do, you wanna be in my life In my life

Jesus, tease us There's something about your name Master, saviour, Jesus

I've been dirtier than you wanna know I've left earlier than you'll ever know Jesus Jesus
