

The Blair Snitch Project

The Amity Affliction

The walls white, skies white, nights white, lights white (and fuck you)
for being so fucking white tonight
my eyes roll back white, white everywhere, lips white, words white, lies cold as the white ice

Yeah, and fuck you for being so fucking white tonight we were always as hot as the white light and cold as the white ice but tonight, tonight I've passed the point of no return
I won't be turning 'round again

I was so blinded by your eyes
So blinded by those white lights
And dust is now what you've become
No longer such a fucking bright white light
And I can see further than I ever saw

The walls white, skies white,
(and fuck you)
for being so fucking white tonight
my eyes roll back white,
white everywhere, lips white,
white ice

Yeah,
and fuck you for
being so fucking white tonight
we were always as hot as the white light
but tonight, tonight I've passed
the point of no return
I won't be turning 'round again

I was so blinded by your eyes
So blinded by those white lights
And dust is now what you've become
No longer such a fucking bright white light
And I can see further than I ever saw

The walls white, skies white,
(and fuck you)
for being so fucking white tonight
my eyes roll back white,
white everywhere, lips white,
white ice

your white eyes, you rolled back fucking eyes They wont ever be falling on me again tonight

The walls white, skies white,
(and fuck you)
for being so fucking white tonight
my eyes roll back white,
white everywhere, lips white,
white ice
