The Angels

Watch the blackbird coming down
Guilty percher waking drum
Living in tortured extasis
Twisted vision what you see
Make you famous, make you blameless
Feel the madness catching up with me
Breakdown

Is just beginning
You're the only one
Shot at your heart
And after all you've done
Breakdown

Bear the changes coming through
Lotta love but no one's loving you
See the blackbird cross the sun
Never said goodbye to anyone
Live a little less tonight
Die a little more tomorrow
Feel the madness catching up again

Is just beginning
You're the only one
Shot at your heart
And after all you've done
