I've Been Around

The Animals

I've been around the world, it's true Searchin' for someone exactly like you I finally found a love that's true

You heard story, you heard just what I said The one that I love she might as well be dead Finally found a love that's true, oh, oh, oh, oh

You heard my story you know how I feel You got me spinnin', like a spinnin' wheel And finally found a love that true

I've been around the world, it's true Searchin' for someone exactly like you And finally found a love that's true And finally found a love that's true
