

Crash Test

The Anix

If I held you higher
And I could chose to need you
What side of you is unreal?
(I know you)
At every breath that I take
Every mistake that I make
Even if I could hold you close
(Will you...)

Fly away with me
When the back seats all alone
You are with May, tonight
And I know what you know
We're not around when the top keeps caving in front of you
Tonight could be the enemy

And if knew that I had to become a factor to you
(Would you still push me further?)
And if I chose to have you
If I could choose to need you
What side of you is unreal?
(Will you...)

Fly away with me
When the back seats all alone
You are with May, tonight
And I know what you know
We're not around when the top keeps caving in front of you
Tonight could be the enemy

(Tonight could be) the enemy...
(Tonight could be)
(Tonight could be) the enemy...
(Tonight could be) the enemy...
(Tonight could be)

(Will you...)
Fly away with me
When the back seats all alone
You are with May, tonight
And I know what you know
We're not around when the top keeps caving in front of you
Tonight could be the enemy
