

Held Apart

The Anix

When everything seems OK
But the feeling's not enough (for me to stay this way)
If it's all around your head, but it's just not living up
(Take away a part of me)

I'm sorry I noticed that you've kept a part of me
(Until the end of me)
I'm sorry I noticed that you've kept a part of me
It won't come back...

With everything that you are
It makes me give it up
(But who am I to say?)
(Who am I to feel?)
I'm just a lie you told to stay

I'm sorry I noticed that you've kept a part of me
(Until the end of me)
I'm sorry I noticed that you've kept a part of me
It won't come back...

(I'm sorry I noticed...) that you've kept a part of me
(Until the end of me)
I'm sorry I noticed that you've kept a part of me
It won't come back...

I'm sorry I noticed that...
I'm sorry I noticed...
I'm sorry I noticed that you've kept a part of me
That won't come back...
