

Evil Man

The Answer

Saw my smile as she turned around,
Thought she'd lost something I had found,
I said I believe we're both the same,
She said 'Honey I can't play that game',
Either way I'm a loveless man,
Either way she said, I'm an evil man.

I took her name to my welcome bed,
Asked me what it was that she'd been fed,
Got that hunger and she's got that fight,
Left her lonely at morning light.

Let everybody talk about me,
Everybody gonna talk about me,
Everybody is talking about me,
Let them talk.

I'm an evil man,
(I am an evil man),
She'll never let me forget,
I'm out to get what I can,
(I am an evil man),
And I understand why she said,
I should examine my head.

She proclaimed that she did not choose,
Looked like her reflections had been misused,
Head's spinning and her body aches,
Blamed that pill that she chose to take.

Nobody gonna stand beside her,
Nobody gonna sympathise,
Nobody gonna sympathise now,
Sympathy.

I'm an evil man,
(I am an evil man),
She'll never let me forget,
I'm out to get what I can,
(I am an evil man),
And I understand why she said,
I'm an evil man, I am evil.

Ooohh, ooohh,
Ooohh, ooohh.

Got that hunger do you,
Got that hunger do you,
Got that hunger do you,
Got that hunger?

I'm an evil man,
(I am an evil man),
She'll never let me forget,
I'm out to get what I can,
(I am an evil man),
And I understand why she said,

I am evil,
(I am an evil man).

There's so much going on in my head,
She just cannot comprehend,
(I am an evil man),
And I understand why she said,
I'm an evil man,
I am evil.
